

Alyssa M. Nohren joined the firm in 2006 and practices real estate law, concentrating her practice in residential and commercial real estate transactions, mobile home law, and real estate litigation. In addition to writing title for a number of major title insurance companies, Ms. Nohren represents clients in disputes involving real estate contracts, homeowners' association matters and foreclosure sales.

Before moving to Florida Ms. Nohren practiced in Boston, Massachusetts.

Ms. Nohren is a member of the Sarasota County Bar Association, Massachusetts Bar Association, Florida Bar Association, American Bar Association, United State District Court for the Middle District of Florida, Florida Association for Women Lawyers, John M. Scheb American Inn of Court, and 12th Judicial Circuit Pro Bono Committee. She also belongs to the University of Florida Alumni Association, Sarasota PEO — Chapter F, Kappa Kappa Gamma Alumni, and Sarasota Pan-Hellenic Association.

Practice Areas

Civil Litigation

Real Estate

Manufactured Housing Law

Real Property Litigation

Education

University of Florida

Suffolk University School of Law

Contact

Phone: 941-366-8100

FAX: 941-366-5263

E-Mail: anohren@icardmerrill.com