

Ms. Wallace practices exclusively in the area of family law, which includes handling a wide range of divorce cases, post-divorce matters, the preparation of marital agreements, paternity matters and custody cases. Ms. Wallace joined the firm as a shareholder in 2006, but was an associate of the firm from 1985 to 1990. She has practiced law since 1984.

Ms. Wallace supports her clients in remaining realistic throughout what is often a traumatic and life-altering experience in their lives. She wants her clients to be left with the knowledge and belief that she represented their interests intelligently and vigorously to get them the best possible results. Ms. Wallace also wants her clients to understand the process that they are in and be informed enough to make their choices in that process. She prides herself on always maintaining a professional manner and on past accomplishments in the courtroom.

Ms. Wallace is a member of the Sarasota County Bar Association, Inns of Court, and a past member of the American Bar Association and the Association of Trial Lawyers in America. She has been involved for many years, both on the local and national level, with the non-profit corporation, Girls Incorporated.
